

Date: March 17, 2017
Title of Position: Assistant Professor - Education
Salary: Estimated range: $44,431 - $50,474 (per MCCC contract) with benefits
Effective: Fall 2017

Position Overview: Provide instruction in Elementary Education and Early Childhood Education courses to a diverse student population enrolled in associate degree and certificate programs. Responsibilities include the development of expanded Elementary Education course offerings, fieldwork instruction, assistance with recruitment, and teaching online, evenings, and weekends. Faculty members typically teach 15 credit hours per semester and perform advising and college service duties.

Qualifications: A Master's degree in Education or a closely-related field. Work experience in early childhood or elementary education. Teaching experience and familiarity with state licensing for both Early Childhood Education and Elementary Education. Commitment to student-centered, outcomes-based education with experience incorporating multiple instructional strategies and the use of technology in teaching and learning. Excellent oral, written, and interpersonal skills. Demonstrated understanding of the community college mission. Post-secondary and online teaching experience preferred.

Additional information: Source of Funding: State funded
Area of Assignment: Academic Affairs

MCCC AFSCME DCE Non-Unit Full-time Part -Time
Tenure-Track

Application Procedures: For consideration, submit cover letter, resume, names and telephone numbers of three (3) recent professional references, and a one-page statement containing your philosophy of teaching at a community college to Ted Kozlowski, Human Resources Office, Berkshire Community College, 1350 West Street, Pittsfield, MA 01201 tkozlowski@berkshirecc.edu A 15 minute teaching demonstration will be required as part of the interview process.

Application Closing Date: April 10, 2017 . BCC is committed to providing an inclusive learning and working environment that values the diverse backgrounds of all people and encourages applications from individuals whose experiences and perspectives model the opportunities and success derived from a college education.
