

Date: May 2, 2018
Title of Position: Assistant Professor – Computer Information Systems
Full-time, tenure-track MCCC Unit Position
Salary: Estimated range $43,735 - $52,731 (per MCCC contract) with benefits
Effective: Fall 2018

Position Overview: Provide instruction in diverse topics and levels of computer information systems (CIS) to a diverse student population enrolled in associate degree and certificate programs. Collaborate with workforce development and local community in developing training in CIS and related security topics. Faculty typically teach 15 credit hours per semester and perform advising and college service duties.

Qualifications: A Bachelor’s degree in Computer Science or a closely-related subject area required; master’s degree preferred. Additional education, certifications, breadth of programming language expertise and experience, particularly in network and system security a plus. College teaching experience required; community college experience preferred. A strong commitment to student-centered, practical education with experience incorporating multiple instructional strategies required. Applicants should have experience using techniques and instructional methodologies in support of all types of students. Applicants should be proven team-players with an ongoing commitment to personal and professional development.

Additional information: Source of Funding: State Funded
Area of Assignment: Academic Affairs (Business, Science, Mathematics, and Technology)

MCCC AFSCME DCE Non-Unit Full-time Part -Time
Tenure-Track

Application Procedures: For consideration, submit cover letter, resume, names and telephone numbers of three current professional references, and a one-page statement containing your philosophy of teaching computer information systems at a community college to Berkshire Community College, 1350 West Street, Pittsfield, MA 01201 or email to hbailey@berkshirecc.edu. A teaching demonstration will be required as part of the interview process.

Application Closing Date: May 21, 2018. BCC is committed to providing an inclusive learning and working environment that values the diverse backgrounds of all people and encourages applications from individuals whose experiences and perspectives model the opportunities and success derived from a college education.