d. One Stop Capital Strategic Plan Proposal

Adam Klepetar and Dave Moran gave a presentation on the proposed One Stop Student Success Center.

President Kennedy began the presentation with the following points.
• Began conception One Stop Student Success Center in 2015
• Located in Field Administration Center, existing building
• The One Stop will:
  o Increase student engagement, retention, and completion rates
  o Impact all degree and certificate programs at BCC
  o Become a student-facing space – welcoming environment with all key onboarding offices located in one central place
  o Create opportunities for office efficiencies
  o Provide collaborative workspaces for community based partnerships

Our Vision
To create a comfortable and inviting central location where students and community partners can have all of their college service needs met efficiently in one place.

Adam Klepetar spoke about the current student traffic, congestion, and confusion making this a “High Priority” project for BCC, touching on the following topics.
• Tied to Title III Strengthening Institutions grant objectives and BCC’s Strategic Plan
• Disjointed onboarding processes
• Students bouncing from office to office
- Lack of privacy for students and staff
- Traffic bottlenecks in hallway
- Limited offices for advising and financial aid staff

Vice President Klepetar explained that students spend too much time waiting between steps in the process. A 2016 Secret Shopping experience by the EAB revealed a 125-minute total wait to complete enrollments steps. Student privacy is limited. Conversations regarding billing, aid, grades etc. often happen in hallways with little privacy. Hallway congestion creates long wait times, frustrating students with long lines. Ventilation and air quality during summer months are challenging. There are also ADA issues in the current space. Trying to fit 21st century engagement and technology into a building from the 70s is extremely difficult.

Facilities Director, Dave Moran spoke to the Board about the following advantages of a One Stop.
- Putting the student in the center
- Improves functionality of current space
- Enhances workplace efficiencies
- Small project – major impact
- Encompasses the main section of the first floor of Field Administration Center
- Welcome Station staffed by “generalist” to assist students
- Provides “front door” to the campus, an identified starting point
- The space will included both Individual and shared offices
- Meeting and presentation spaces
- Computer kiosks will be available in the front lobby
- Secure record storage
- ADA accessibility – enclosing the front walkway, removing current paver blocks and installation of new accessible ramp

BCC’s current situation:
- Advisors with advisees having conversations with little privacy. Meager cubicle partition walls at best.
- ADA challenges with stairs on one side of the building have to go outside and re-enter building at east end for ramp access.

Klepeter described the proposed new space.
- Apple or Verizon style – with check-in process
- Friendly “generalists” as greeters
- Kiosk technology
- Comfortable space for students and/or families to wait
- Flex offices with doors for privacy
- Professional staff have dedicated spaces
- Flex offices used during busy times and for career and community partners
- Openness of the greeter and welcome area
- Enclosed avenue allows for natural light

Moran went on to describe the project.
- Currently, students with mobility challenges have to leave the building and go outside.
• The new design does not change the footprint of the building. This equates to significant cost savings.

Alignment with Commonwealth Priorities
Priority One - Renovating Existing Space
• ADA, HVAC, Protection/Sprinklers, Lighting
Priority Two - Programmatic Collaborations
• Career information and on-site interviews with area employers
Priority Three - Alignment with Local Labor Market
• Provide pipeline of students to fill workforce needs across Berkshire County

Project Budget
• Total cost: $4,911,080
• BCC has supported initial design phase/schematics: $48,000+
• External funding sources could support future renovations to encompass Testing Center, Tutoring Center, and ADA bathrooms

Project Impact
• Ensures coordination of services for students and community partners
• Tied to student retention and success – 9% increase
• 26% increase in student engagement
• Students receive the services they need, when they need them

Discussion ensued; and, a motion to approve the One Stop Student Success Center as a critical capital project was requested.

Upon a motion duly made and seconded, it was VOTED unanimously to approve the One Stop Student Success Center as a critical capital project, which is consistent with the Campus Master Plan Update (Fall 2016). The total project cost is currently estimated at $4,911,080. Berkshire Community College is requesting these funds from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for FY19 through the new strategic framework process for major capital projects, which is being administered by the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance (DCAMM). Proceeding with the project is contingent upon receiving these funds.

Everyone on the Board signed a letter to be mailed to Carol Gladstone, Commissioner of DCAMM, supporting the One Stop Capital Strategic Plan Proposal.

5. ALUMNI TRUSTEE REPORT

The Alumni Board has been working on an Alumni Association Newsletter. It will be finished any day now, and I will have Kim Brookman distribute it to the Trustees. The newsletter will contain campus news, class notes, and each newsletter will feature an Alumni Spotlight. The newsletter will be released two times a year.

6. FOUNDATION BOARD TRUSTEE REPORT

Vice President Smith reported the following.

BCC faculty member, Faye Reynolds recently launched an amazing project to create an online photographic database of the biological traits of flora and fauna. The images are breathtaking, and the site has already generated national attention. Faye has been doing all this work with a borrowed piece of equipment meant for use by a different program in our life sciences. The work is tedious and time-consuming.

At the conclusion of the presentation, the foundation voted to provide a $12,000 grant to the College to purchase a state of the art microscope to use in the project. The microscope has been ordered and should arrive shortly.
Later in the meeting, the Foundation was asked to provide, and subsequently approved, $25,000 in funding to purchase an Anatomage table for BCC. The table is essentially a virtual cadaver to be used in the nursing program and in other classes. It’s basically a life-size screen built into an electronic table that students can use to dissect images. We will be the only installation West of UMass Amherst in the Commonwealth to have this device. President Kennedy announced that the remainder of the funds, over $100,000, will come from a partnership with Berkshire Health Systems and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. We should have the table in time for the spring semester.

The foundation’s finance and investment committee then reported that our various investment portfolios are all up strongly and that performance compares favorably to benchmark.

We also discussed recent progress regarding a market feasibility study to determine how South County Center might be reconfigured to better serve the local area. The study should happen sometime in the first half of 2018. The community is really behind the concept of serving the food/hospitality and agriculture sector with farm-to-table and entrepreneurship programming.

We are creating an alumni newsletter which will be distributed later this week via email. Our alumni board is very excited about this, since a great deal is happening on campus.

The 40 Under Forty fundraising event will be held on March 29 at the Crowne Plaza. We have secured three major sponsors so far, and currently have close to 70 nominations.

Smith encouraged everyone to consider nominating a young rising star who is deserving of recognition. The deadline is December 15 and information may be found on the college’s website. We are also running ads on a daily basis in the Berkshire Eagle.

The development committee then recommended that we put our “not your average dog show” on hiatus for next year. Our plan is to instead have a re-dedication of the Boland Theatre in its place. This recommendation was accepted by the Foundation.

The Foundation treasurer reported that income and expenses are generally on budget.
